This case should have never been prosecuted to begin with. It is not the business of government tell a legally operating business what it can and cannot do. It is necessary for the Justice Department to get out of the way, tell the states that "object" to the settlement to get over it, because it is done. If these states have so much time on their hand, that they can afford this case, then perhaps they are meccas we all should move to, because they have no crime!!!!!!!!!!
